

SEATTLE WOMEN TO SPEAK HERE

Mrs. Winfield H. Smith of Seattle, Washington, will speak in Hammond, Indiana, on Thursday, Sept. 30, at an evening meeting at 8:30 under the auspices of the local Republican committee.

Mrs. Smith is one of the forceful speakers sent out by the national speaker's bureau of the national republican committee. She has served nearly a year in France as a reconstruction worker in the devastated villages. Last year she led a parade in Seattle, in which over 100,000 soldiers and war workers took part.

12 MORE MAY BE INDICTED

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Twelve more indictments against ball players and gamblers probably will be voted today or tomorrow by the Cook county grand jury which yesterday indicted eight members of the Chicago White Sox, according to a statement made today by Harvey L. Reigle, assistant state attorney, who is conducting the probe before the grand jury.

Three eastern gamblers and two baseball players on National League teams are said to be among those facing indictment.

"While the indictments returned yesterday went a long way toward accomplishing the purpose of the present investigation," Reigle said, "there is yet much more to come. This morning I will confer with another White Sox player who is inclined to want to tell the jury what he knows of the manipulation of the world's series last year. At present I have every reason to believe he will follow the footsteps of Cicotte and Jackson before the grand jury returns its final verdict."

"However, I am of the opinion that all the crooked work was not confined to this series. Just how many and what other games have been 'thrown' I am not as yet in a position to say, but there is little question that some of those played this year have looked queer."

"Naturally we are perhaps more interested in prosecuting the crooked gamblers who are more responsible than the men who were unable to resist temptation."

"We have learned the names of at least two of the 'triple ring' that had headquarters in New York and furnished the money to buy up players. The name of the third I hope to get today."

Savers and Spenders

It is true. There is a lot of extravagance.

But more people are saving than you realize.

If times should change they will have money in the bank.

What about you?

Are you saving a regular amount each pay day, putting it in the bank?

Or are you one of the "high flyers" who get good pay but spend all?

Whatever you are doing, it isn't too late to begin saving, or to save more. A savings account at this bank will help you get ahead. Save while wages are good.

BAPTIST REVIVAL MAKING HISTORY

The last week of the revival conducted by the California whiz Big Jim Kramer, is growing by leaps and bounds.

Sunday was a day never to be forgotten in the church. On Sunday morning all hearts were throbbed by one of the most beautiful sights ever witnessed in a church when scores of young people went forward and gave Jim their hand to live a Christian life. Sunday night notwithstanding the storm a great crowd was present to hear the baseball sermon and Jim did nothing but knock home runs. As a result of the day there were 41 conversions.

On Monday night the sermon was for business men. The Rotary club marched in a body and representatives of the chamber of commerce, Big Jim's theme was "Proitzos." After the sermon the men gathered around the speaker and almost hugged him. Dr. Lucklader and many others declared it was not only a great heart message, but one of the greatest pieces of oratory ever heard in Hammond. The offering was the largest of the meeting.

Tonight Dr. Kramer will preach his famous message on "The Mistakes of Dan Ingerson." In this sermon all the charges against Christianity by the great infidel will be answered, his so-called contradictions in the Bible exposed, and all his charges shown up. All the infidels of the city are urged to be present and behold the mistakes of their leader. Big Jim will close his work in Hammond on Sunday and open up in Tulsa the following Sunday, then to the great state of Pennsylvania.

On Thursday night it speaks to all the preachers and delegates attending the Baptist association which meets in this city. On Friday night he speaks to the H. Y. P. U. delegation and other groups of young people.

Last evening the Indiana Harbor church had a large delegation out and their pastor assisted in the meeting. It is said tonight's theme is Big Jim's masterpiece and a great crowd is expected to hear this defense of the Christian religion. There will be some of the best singing you ever hear.

Another Musical Comedy

"Jail Birds" doesn't sound like the name of a musical comedy, but it is in fact matinee fans, who were at the Orpheum theater today, say it is one of the best shows of its class they have ever seen. The special jail scene is great, but the bunch of pretty girl convicts in their abbreviated prison garb is what takes the eye. They are full of pep and cast aside pretensions.
